ORGANIZATION OF BUREAU OUTLINED

Committee Makes Report To Convention This Morning.

Practical Plans for Promoting Immigration to This Section Made.

WORK PROVES SUCCESSFUL

OFFICERS CHOSEN.

President—Henry Hughes, Paducah.
Secretary—D. W. Coons, Paducah.
Vice Presidents—
Metropolis, Ill., J. F. McCarty.
Calloway County, O. J. Jennings.
Livingston County, G. N. McGrew.

Ballard County, W. H. Viets.
Graves County, J. R. Lemon.
McCracken County, W. L. Bower.

Under the title of the Immigration Bureau of Western Kentucky and Southern Illinois, the immigration movement fostered in this city has been organized in permanent form.

That the immigration convention is an event of state and even national importance, is evident now. From the telegrams received, from the presence of delegates from Louisville and the opinions they express, but chiefly from the broadening conception of its possibilities in the minds of the delegates, the convention will close today with a record of vital work for Western Kentucky and Southern Illinois.

Whatever may be done toward securing immigration for Kentucky in the future, the lead Paducah has taken by this convention will classify all such efforts as secondary. It was brought home to every delegate by Mr. Wheeler's speech yesterday, and by the talks of the Louisville delegates this morning, that this end of the state, in embryonic if not in actual condition, is the section with the largest future in Kentucky. Mr. Phil Hollenbach, of Louisville, said that city regarded Paducah as its only serious rival in the state, because the spirit which makes cities forge ahead was here in a greater degree than in any city in the state except his own—of course.

In this morning's session the principal feature was the adoption of the report of the committee on organization of a permanent immigration bureau. It was not adopted, however, until several amendments had been offered. In the list of persons companies and corporations which should contribute to the support of the organization, Mr. Hsi Corbett called attention to the omission of the street railway and other public utilities. These were inserted.

The morning session was called to order at 10:30 o'clock and short talks were called for from the delegates. Mr. Jake Corbett of Wickliffe, spoke and told how immigration was necessary to any undeveloped country.

State Senator J. W. Newman addressed the convention and told of the work of the last legislature toward organizing a state immigration commission.

He said $2,000 was appropriated for that purpose. He thought the best results could be gotten by this convention affiliating with the state commission. He explained how the great western railroads had drained Kentucky of many of its best citizens and that it is as much our duty to prevent emigration as to encourage immigration. He said the north directed the scum of the immigrants to the south, retaining the better class for itself. An important point made by Senator Newman was the necessity of bringing immigrants here in sufficient numbers to make it congenial for them. A few here and there would make it inhospitable for newcomers who were not accustomed to our manner of living.

Mr. George C. Thompson spoke and advised careful attention to the kind of immigrants secured, saying that each locality had special needs. Mr. E. A. Quarles, representing the Louisville Commercial club and the Louisville Employers' association

LILLIAN RUSSELL IS ROBBED

Thief Gets Satchel Containing Diamonds Worth $2,500 to $3,000.

Springfield, Ohio, Oct. 5.—Lillian Russell was robbed of a hand satchel containing many diamonds this morning shortly after she had boarded the Big Four east-bound train at Dayton. The loss was at first estimated by Miss Russell's manager to be $5,000, but she said later in the day, upon her arrival at Columbus, that it would not amount to more than $2,500.

$100 SHY

WERE RECEIPTS COMPARED TO THE EXPENDITURES.

Nevertheless, Central Labor Union Appreciated Work of Carnival Committee.

Central Labor Union met last night and heard a report from the carnival committee, which was accepted in its entirety. An itemized statement was furnished accounting for every cent spent.

The figures show that the actual expenditures amounted to $3,500, and the money taken in $3,400. There are a lot of outstanding debts, but Central Labor Union agreed to make good every cent and will pay the claims off as fast as possible. The union complimented the committee on the good work, considering the weather and other drawbacks.

The committee will have printed an itemized statement of all receipts and expenditures in tabulated form to be furnished to each local of the city.

JOHN D'S VIEWS

ALARMED AT TENDENCY TO CORRECT QUALITY OF STUFF.

Says We Are Destroying Our Industries by Interference of the Government.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 5.—The Plain Dealer today prints an interview with John D. Rockefeller, in which the latter comments on the demand for government regulation of so-called private industries, and makes a strong plea for national development. Mr. Rockefeller is quoted, in part, as follows:

"If we limit opportunity we will have put the brakes on our national development. Will the individual strive for success if he knows the hard-won price is to be snatched from his fingers at the last by his government? We are still too young a nation to begin tearing down. We must build up, build up, build up, for years to come.

"The French people hate us, and they will crush us if they can. They want our money. They want the patronage of our tourists. But they hate us. They never let slip an opportunity to take quick advantage of our mistakes. And now there is Japan, rising in the east to a power we cannot estimate. We cannot foretell what her competition will be.

"At this critical stage we are giving the enemy ammunition to fire at us. He is quick to seize this advantage.

"It was in Europe when the attack was made at home on the best men and their industry, and I could watch the effect of it there at close range. Those fellows abroad snatched at our own charges against our own business with the greatest glee. They used them promptly as ammunition with which to attack America and everything American, especially American manufactured products and trade. I do not believe there was a line of American goods sold abroad that was not injured."

Trains Collide.
Indianapolis, Oct. 5.—Two trains on the Monon Route collided head-on at Broad Ripple, a suburb, this morning. Two persons were injured.

It is the daily average circulation of a newspaper that the shrewd advertiser investigates—"High Water" days don't count. The Sun's daily average last month was 8939.

PEOPLE HURLED HIGH IN THE AIR

By Explosion in Subway in Philadelphia.

Seven Are Killed and Fourteen Seriously Injured—Others May Be Dead.

VEHICLES MOVED TO CURBING

Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—Seven men were killed this morning by an explosion in the Rapid Transit company's subway, Sixth and Market streets. Fourteen are in the hospitals suffering from injuries. A dozen are less seriously hurt. It is believed other bodies will be found in the hole, as it is called by workmen. The whole section of the city on Market street between Sixth and Seventh is completely wrecked.

People in the vicinity were hurled high in the air. Street cars lined on the tracks and teams two squares away were sent flying to the curbs. Every window in the vicinity was blown out by the concussion.

Within three minutes bodies of seven persons were dragged from the verge of ditches. Only one is an employee of the firm doing the subway work. Others were pedestrians apparently on their way to places of employment. The subway immediately caught fire from gas, and flames leaped higher than adjoining buildings. Gas was turned off as quickly as possible.

Endorse W. R. Hearst.

Boston, Oct. 5.—The Massachusetts Democratic state convention was held here today. The report of the committee on resolutions submitted a platform which was adopted, containing the following paragraph: "We congratulate the Democracy of New York upon its wise selection of a leader and sound Massachusetts' heart wishes for Mr. Hearst's election."

MINE CAVES IN.

Bull Frog Company Meets With a Slight Accident.

Heavy rains in the west have done damage to many mines, and the Paducah Bull Frog company had a cave-in in shaft No. 2 which nearly killed a miner. The shaft had been sunk 100 feet, the White Rock mine, and the better quality of the ore was encouraging to the promoters. P. W. Dargin, the engineer, has returned and reports in a letter that the cave-in will not be serious. The railroads are building rapidly toward the mine.

STOLE STAMPS

STEEL TUBE EMPLOYE PASS MATERIAL AT SHOP.

Investigation Begun by Navy Department Is Renewed—It Could Not Get Through.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 5.—Because of the affidavit of Frank L. Emmett, a former employee of the Shelby Steel Tube company of Greenville, Pa., that he broke open the desk of a government inspector and took the official stamp and used it to pass boiler tubes for battleships that had been previously rejected, the navy department today began a fresh investigation of charges that had been permitted to slumber in the files for months.

Six months ago Assistant Secretary Newberry received an anonymous communication to this effect and Commander W. P. Parks, of the bureau of steam engineering, was detailed to make an inquiry. He reported that even if defective tubes had been passed at the point of manufacture, it would have been practically impossible for them to be placed on the vessels, as they were tested again at Barberton, O., where the boilers were made.

SALOON ENTERED.

Burglars Take Whisky, Cigars and Money From Room.

The saloon of Nelson & Sears at Norton and Third streets, was entered from the rear last night and $15 in cash and a lot of liquor and cigars taken. The amount of stock taken cannot be estimated.

Engineer J. S. Spinner, of the I. C., returned this morning from Little Rock, Ark., where he had been on a visit.

COCAINE POISON PRODUCES DEATH

Verdict of Coroner's Jury in Mullin's Death.

Son Said Father Had Been Drinking But Was Not Addicted to Drug Habit.

BODY TAKEN TO OLD HOME

Mr. W. R. Mullins, son of Dr. W. S. Mullins, who died Wednesday night at Riverside hospital, arrived in Paducah last night and took charge of the body. It will be taken today to Paris, Ill., the old home, for burial. Although the coroner held an inquest yesterday and returned a verdict of "death from an overdose of cocaine," the son does not believe that this was the cause of death.

He said: "My father had been drinking and I was here as late as Wednesday morning. He was in a pretty shaky condition, but seemed to be better than he had been. My father's heart was weak and it is this I attribute his death. He probably might have taken a little cocaine to brace him up, and it may have affected his heart to an extent, but the idea of suicide or that my father was addicted to the cocaine or drug habit is erroneous."

Mr. Mullins is traveling for the G. P. McDougall company of Indianapolis, and often comes to Paducah, selling the Rhodes-Burford company a great deal of goods. He stated that his grandparents, were originally from Harrodsburg, Ky., but removed to Illinois where his father was born 53 years ago.

CAR DERAILLED.

Causes Delay of One Hour Returning From Horse Show.

Last night an accident to a park line car at the fair ground switch caused a great deal of inconvenience to both company and patrons.

The car was the second in from the horse show and was loaded with passengers. It left the rails and crossed the tracks in such a way as to make it impossible for other cars to get by. A long string of cars followed it and passengers had to be transferred to cars dispatched from the city. It required nearly an hour to replace the car on the rails. No one was injured, but when the car began riding the ties many women became excited and screamed loudly.

Personal Property of Late Senator $612,000, Not Millions.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Great surprise has been felt by all except intimate personal friends of the late Senator Arthur Pue Gorman, of Maryland, that the inventory of his personal estate reached only $612,406. The senator's fortune had been estimated variously from $3,000,000 to $20,000,000. His enemies charged him with having amassed a large fortune through political deals.

RULE STANDS

TEACHERS ARE LIABLE TO FINES FOR TARDINESS.

Mr. Beckenbach Meant Merely to Excuse Teachers Tardy the First Week.

To correct an ambiguous proposition made at the school board meeting last Tuesday night, Trustee Beckenbach of the school board, who made the motion that teachers be excused from tardiness in bad weather, stated this morning that his motion referred merely to those teachers who had been absent since school began. He said:

"It is an injustice to me to have the public think that I would make a motion that teachers should be excused for all time from tardiness simply because the weather is bad. The rules of the board cannot be set aside on a mere verbal motion. My motion last Tuesday night simply was to excuse the tardiness since school began."

COTTON SHORTAGE

CAUSES SUICIDE OF NEW ORLEANS BROKER.

Ruin Stared Him in Face and He Took Large Dose of Opium—Prominent Man.

New Orleans, Oct. 5.—Philip Millard, one of the most prominent cotton operators in New Orleans, is dead as the result of opium poisoning, self-administered. Millard was caught short in cotton by the bull movement caused by the hurricane damage to the crop and rather than face financial ruin he sought solace in death.

Final service of process in the E. Rehkopf Saddle company involuntary bankruptcy proceedings was had yesterday and next Wednesday the matter will be adjudicated by the federal court in Louisville. It is understood the assignee will not resist the action and the concern will be declared bankrupt.

Developments in the Rehkopf matter have been interesting the public since the assignment was made. The outstanding debts against the concern amount to more than $154,836.35 and the assets consist of $69,600. Since the assignment was made creditors filed a motion in the federal court at Louisville asking that the firm be forced into bankruptcy and no opposition was made.

R. J. Barber, assignee, ten days ago, filed suit in circuit court asking that W. S. O'Brien, the American-German National bank and the Starks-Ulman Saddlery company be restrained from disposing of $30,000 worth of stock held by a prior claim of the bank. The trial of the injunction was set for today, but yesterday Circuit Judge Reed continued it until Monday. It is not known what effect the forcing of the firm into bankruptcy will have on the state court's action in this particular matter.

Inventory Filed.

A complete inventory of the stock of the E. Rehkopf Saddlery company was filed this morning in county court by Assignee R. J. Barber, and it is one of the most voluminous records ever filed in the county. It is a record one inch thick, covering 137 pages of closely typewritten matter. The figures follow:

CZAR'S HEALTH

Liverpool, Oct. 5.—The health of Czar Nicholas is causing the greatest concern to the authorities of Russia, who know his real condition. Recent events have made the czar suspicious of every one. Under the mental strain to which he is subjected his health has suffered. Often Nicholas refuses food prepared for him, fearing it is poisoned.

Theatrical Notes

Race for a Widow.

A comedy with an attractive title, called "A Race for a Widow," will be presented at The Kentucky on Monday night. It is said to contain an abundance of wit of the best sort, with a touch of sentiment, lots of character, some dramatic scenes and a company who present it surprisingly well, with Pete Baker, of Chris &
Lena fame, heading the cast.

House of Mystery.

A clever company presenting the Mittenthal Bros. production of Langdon McCormick's original melodrama
"The House of Mystery," will be the attraction at The Kentucky theater for one night on Wednesday. It is said that this will be one of the rare melodramatic treats of the season.
The play is written in a free and easy manner, dealing with a theme carried out by characters entirely new to the stage, while the equipment scenically is marvelous. The third act discloses unique novelties, mechanical effects, illusions and sensational surprises.

Malaria Makes Pale Blood.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES ARRANGED

Chicago League Teams Will Fight It Out.

Next Tuesday Is Day Set for First of Series Between Permanent Winners.

NATIONAL LEAGUE GROUNDS.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—The first game of the series between the Chicago National League Baseball club and the Chicago American League club for the championship of the world will be played Tuesday, October 9, on the grounds of the National League club in this city. The date was decided today at the conference between Presidents Charles W. Murphy, Charles Comiskey and Harry Pulliam.

Procedure in determining which team should have the advantage of the first game was distinctly informal.
Mr. Murphy borrowed a dollar and spun it in the air, and Mr. Comiskey said "heads." He lost, and the discussion, in which several newspaper men participated turned on seating capacity and price for admission to see the games. The presidents of both clubs expressed themselves in favor of ordinary prices, for the reason that both teams have been liberally supported during the season. Mr.
Pulliam, president of the National League, set the price question at rest by stating that the matter of prices would be settled by the national commission which has charge of the games. An announcement on this point is expected from Mr. Herrman at Cincinnati late this afternoon. Mr.
Murphy said that, by reason of extra boxes seating 1,200 people and circus seats, he would be able to seat 26,000 people in the West Side grounds. Mr.
Comiskey declared that similar arrangements on the South Side would accommodate 26,000.

ALDERMEN GRANT THE FRANCHISE

Pass Ordinance Over the Veto of Mayor Yeiser.

Nineteenth Street Car Line Now May Be Built By Paducah Traction Company.

ALL ATTEND THE HORSE SHOW

The board of aldermen met last night passed the street car franchise over the veto of the mayor, allowed bills, transacted a few matters of business of a minor nature and adjourned to go to the horse show. All members were present.

The minutes of the last regular and called meetings were read and adopted.

Mayor Yeiser presented a resolution adopted by the board of directors of the Paducah Traction company by which the company will within six months after purchase of the Nineteenth street car line franchise, if it purchases it, begin work and finish within 12 months after work is begun.

The resolution was received and filed.

Alderman Bell moved to give the Nineteenth street car line franchise ordinance third passage, the mayor's veto notwithstanding.

Alderman Palmer spoke briefly in favor of the ordinance.

Mayor Yeiser made a brief statement, telling why he vetoed the ordinance. His specific objection was that the time to begin work and finish was not mentioned.

Alderman Miller made a short speech telling what changes had been made in the ordinance after its original drafting, and the action the solicitor took, also. Alderman Miller stated that one important matter left out was that other street car lines or interurban lines may use 800 feet of track of the traction company as is provided in other ordinances. Alderman Miller did not want to delay the building of the line because of its necessity to residents.

Alderman Farley did not object to the car line, but to the "extension of lease." He objected to several minor matters and alleged that the resolution of the company did not amount to a snap of the finger when it came to a show down. He made the assertion "without fear of contradiction" that if "any member of the board had the same proposition before him affecting his personal business, he would not sign it." If he did, he declared, his business would be in the hands of a receiver in a few months.

The ordinance was passed over the mayor's veto, Alderman Farley voting "nay."

Two bids from coal dealers for furnishing city coal for the season were rejected and the mayor instructed to advertise again.

A petition from the Paducah Box and Basket factory to extend Caldwell street from Thirtieth street to Fourteenth street over a fill built last year was filed.

On motion of Alderman Chamblin the board of public works was ordered to gravel the fill.

The report of the auditor for September, showing a balance of $52,468.49 in the treasury, was received and filed.

Bills, salaries, etc., amounting to $15,806.68 were allowed.

A motion for the mayor and finance committee to borrow money to tide the city over October and November prevailed.

Mayor Yeiser stated that the city has a black map, but that it shows no improvements. He produced an insurance map which shows every thing even to the toilet rooms in the house. It is the latest map out, and on motion $40 was paid for the map. It is to be used by the tax supervisors.

On motion the board voted $200 to defray expenses of delegates to the Ohio Valley Improvement association.

On motion the board adjourned until Monday.

THE REASON

Why W. B. McPherson Continues to Recommend Vinol.

First: Because it is not a patent medicine and it contains besides tonic iron all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of oil to nauseate and upset the stomach and retard its work; therefore, wherever old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions will do good, Vinol will do far more good.

Second: Because Vinol acts first upon the stomach creates a healthy appetite, strengthens and tones up the digestive organs purifies and enriches the blood, and, in a natural manner, restores health and strength.

Third: Because Vinol contains no injurious drugs to react upon the system; every ingredient being named on the label, a patient knows exactly what he is taking.

Fourth: Because we never sold any thing in our store that gave such universal satisfaction for old people, weak, sickly women and children nursing mothers, and to build up the system after a severe sickness, and for relieving hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles.

Try Vinol on our guarantee, W. B. McPherson, Druggist.

NOTE.—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Paducah, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

PESTS

WITH WHICH CITY OF CHICAGO IS AFFLICTED.

Retiring City Attorney Has a List, Which He Watches in Interest of Municipality.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Owing to private duties of a pressing character, which demand his attention, John F. Smulski, city attorney of Chicago since April 21, 1903, resigned his office yesterday. With his separation from the city administration at hand, Mr. Smulski last night reviewed his experiences as city attorney and summarized some of the ills and needs of Chicago from a legal viewpoint. Among the "pests" with which the city is afflicted and which it must combat with all of the forces at its command, Mr. Smulski named the following:

Shyster lawyers and many of those practitioners who make a specialty of sidewalk damage cases.

Ambulance chasers.

Physicians who are able to discover in a claimant against the city almost every ill the flesh is heir to and testify to the same.

Persons who seek to rob the city by filing "fake" suits.

Authors of threatening letters who seek to intimidate public officials.

Professional witnesses who are ready to swear, if need be, that the moon is made of green cheese.

DANDERINE

GREW THIS HAIR:

AND WE CAN PROVE IT

MISS JEANETTE WALLACE, 343 W. 14TH STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

"When the scalp throws off either dandruff or a runny substance, it is an evidence of scalp disease, and no time should be lost in correcting it. I certainly would not hesitate to take treatment were you to look at this matter through a magnifying glass. When highly magnified it resembles a working mass of insects. These creatures absorb the nutriment or life-sap of the scalp causing the scalp to become dry and feverish, resulting in the loss of hair and finally baldness. Dandeline works wonders in all such cases. It thoroughly eradicates all traces of scalp bacteria and makes the hair grow unusually long, strong and beautiful. One so cent bottle is enough to show you that it will do all this and even more. NOW at all druggists, three sizes, 25c, 50c, & $1.00 per bottle. KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO., Chicago.

BALLOON CAUGHT GEHRING'S LEGS

Dragged Thousand Feet in Air Upside Down.

With Torn and Bleeding Hands Climbs Guide Rope to Suspended Cannon of Aeronaut.

COMES DOWN WITH GREAT BAG

Reading, Pa., Oct. 5.—Jacob Gehring, of Hummelstown, will never forget his experience at the Reading fair today.

To be carried heavenward feet first does not fall to the lot of many men, but it was a feat that will give this young Lebanon county farmer, something to talk about for many a day. He came to Reading yesterday and secured a job as laborer at the fair grounds. When La Rue, the aeronaut, began his preparations the temptation to "rubber" was too great for Gehring to withstand and he took a position near the big gas bag. With head in air and hands in his pockets, Gehring stood gaping without noticing that his feet were among a coil of ropes. The word was given and the balloon, with La Rue performing upon a trapeze, shot skyward. With it went a shriek of horror from the crowd, for before the eyes of thousands was a man dangling from the end of an anchor rope that had turned about his feet.

La Rue shouted to his involuntary passenger to swing himself upward and catch the rope above his feet with his hands. This Gehring succeeded in doing after several unsuccessful attempts, during which it seemed that any moment he might be dashed head first to death from a rapidly increasing height.

Women in Crowd Faint.

Just as Gehring caught the rope with his hands a gust of wind caught the balloon and he was swung far out. During the terrifying sight some women in the crowd below fainted, while all was still as hundreds prayed for the safety of the unknown man.

Slowly the balloon was being whipped from side to side by the gale in which it had been caught. Finally, when a height of 1,000 feet above the fair grounds had been reached, Gehring, breathless and bleeding from torn hands, dragged himself to the side of La Rue, who was sitting on the cannon suspended from the balloon.

A shout that went up from the crowd was answered by the waving of two pairs of hands up among the clouds.

La Rue slipped into his cannon, astride which Gehring sat, and was shot into space, floating to earth with a parachute.

The balloon, relieved of La Rue's weight again shot upward, and was rapidly carried far to the west, Gehring, however, found the cord, and opening the valve, began to descend slowly toward the Schuylkill river.

An hour later he alighted at the belt line bridge, two miles from the fair grounds, without a scratch. When he returned to the grounds he was greeted as a hero, and a comfortable purse compensated him for all the alarm he had experienced.

THE DELEGATES' DUTY.

Is this convention to be the end of the immigration movement in southwestern Kentucky?

Is the organization of the Illinois Kentucky Immigration Bureau to terminate the duties of the delegates to the convention?

If so, the delegates have wasted money and valuable time in coming here on a mission of such temporary interest.

No doubt, a program for sustaining the work started by the convention will be mapped out and adopted, but unless the delegates themselves keep up their personal interest in the work it will die out before the movement is fairly underway.

The delegates came here from their respective cities and counties to learn ways and means and possibilities, and to carry home with them ideas formulated in convention. The people in their home towns, while, no doubt, interested in immigration, cannot be imbued with that enthusiasm only propagated by contact with others bent on the same mission and actuated by the same motives.

There must be raised funds for carrying on the work, securing immigrants, maintaining some means to protect this section against undesirable foreigners and to encourage the coming of those we want. These funds must come from the people of southwestern Kentucky to whom must be brought home the greatness of the opportunity offered in this movement.

The Paducah Commercial club can not carry on its shoulders the whole responsibility of keeping alive the flames of interest all over this section. Local organization is essential to effectual work in each district.

Every delegate to this convention must consider himself an apostle of immigration. He must go home laden with information and set to work while his own enthusiasm is hot within him to prosecute with ardor his own duty in the movement.

It is not necessary to tell the delegates what are the benefits of immigration. They realized them before they came to this convention. We only desire to impress on them their own responsibility for the future of the movement.

The falling off in the registration figures indicate that the local campaign committees have their work mapped out for them. The next registration day is Tuesday, October 16. In the meantime the Republican convention will be held, and it may be that the result of that meeting will be such as to induce all the rest of the voters to come out and register to help elect the ticket. The figures do not demonstrate that political accomplishments thus far have created any significant enthusiasm.

It is a relief no doubt to those Democratic candidates for state nominations, who expected opposition, to learn they will have no fight on their hands, but when Mott Ayres sends them a dun for double the amount of their assessments, they realize the cost. And they get no run for their money.

said he came to the convention to learn something of the subject of immigration from us to carry back to his associates. He said west Kentucky had made more progress in holding this convention than Louisville had made in many years, in the matter of immigration, and that Louisville had its eye on us. He suggested that in such movements, as in all new movements, gold bricks could be bought at every turn, and advised cautious treatment of the subject. Another point brought out by him, was that the only restriction on immigration this country needed was that the physically unfit should be excluded, but that any other qualifications are advanced by interests in this country which have selfish motives in excluding immigrants.

After discussion of the report, the convention adjourned till 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

The report itself shows that the subject had been well digested before it was put into writing. The committee gave much thought to its construction and when read before the convention this morning, was, in its essentials, a complete plan of organization.

While the attendance at the convention has been several hundred less than expected, still that is not a deduction from its success for every city and county was represented. The essential object of the convention has been realized. And the delegates will go to their homes after having had a pleasant as well as a profitable visit. The convention has lifted Paducah up before the eyes of the whole state, and for that alone, the vast amount of work has been repaid in their estimation.

Many comments were heard on the excellent manner in which Captain W. J. Stone has presided over the convention, and the good work of Secretary Bartley Skinner.

President Hughes will call a meeting of the directors within 30 days.

Second Session.

To the music of the Paducah Military band, the delegates to the immigration convention convened for the afternoon session at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Hon. Charles K. Wheeler was the principal speaker. After his speech, Mr. George C. Wallace moved the chair that a permanent immigration bureau be formed and that the chair appoint a committee of delegates from the two states to draft a plan of organization.

Chairman W. J. Stone then read the following appointments to that committee: D. W. Coons, Paducah; W. H. Viets, Ballard county; O. N. McGrew, Livingston county; W. F. McCartney, Metropolis; W. L. Bower, McCracken county; J. L. Smith, Lyon county; Senator Conn Linn, Murray; J. H. Little and R. L. Shemwell, Marshall county. The committee adjourned immediately with instructions to report at Friday morning's session.

The delegates were extended an in-visitation to attend the afternoon reception of the Chess, Checker and Whist club rooms given for the sponsors and visitors to the horse show.

Chairman Stone called for short speeches from the audience from persons whom he designated. Mr. Matthews was the first speaker and expressed confidence in the success of the convention. Mr. Phil Hollenbach, delegate from the Louisville Commercial club, took exception to Mr. Wheeler's remarks that Paducah and West Kentucky must work alone. He thought the movement was too broad for this end of the state. Chairman Stone said he would take in the remainder of the state later on. Mr. Hollenbach described his experiences when he landed in this country thirty-eight years ago and urged sympathetic treatment of the immigrants when they arrive.

Mr. B. H. Scott emphasized the value of organized effort. Capt. Ed Farley told of practical results from the location of immigrants in this country, and Judge John Moore advised immigration, not because we ourselves are not good farmers, but to have a greater number of farmers to till the waste lands.

Secretary Skinner read telegrams from railroad presidents, senator McCrory, Commissioner Sargent and others wishing success to the convention. The convention adjourned till 10 o'clock Friday morning.

C. K. Wheeler's Address.

In the principal address of the day, Hon. Charles K. Wheeler spoke for forty minutes yesterday afternoon in the convention and was accorded undivided attention. His handling of the subject showed not technical knowledge—but the length and breadth conception of the subject which is more necessary at this stage of the immigration movement.

Mr. Wheeler struck the spirit of the convention when he said the American way of speech-making as a starter for any great movement, should in this instance give way to actual work. Results are the work not of talking but of doing. He said we are all descendants of immigrants, and for that reason he did not sympathize with the latter day hue and cry against the flood of foreigners yearly coming to our shores. We should get good immigrants—but any man who had the independence and manhood to leave home ties for a new land, usually would make a good citizen. We should not allow our wealth to create a snobbish objection to the humble immigrant. He said Paducah should be the center of the country adjacent for a hundred and fifty miles in every direction. That Chicago or St. Louis or Louisville could not take that country in. The south-herefore has gotten only an insignificant part of the million or more immigrants to this country and to increase that part of its proper proportion we must go straight to the foreigner and tell him of our country. He said it would be better for this section to have numerous small landlords, who would develop their land to its capacity, than a smaller number who would merely skim its resources.

Then, the full resources of our land never can be developed until a greater variety of products are raised. It has been demonstrated that, variegated farming is far more profitable, and less wearing on the soil, than where the products are confined to a few staples. But it would be just as necessary for the farmers to work from the first day of January till the last day of December, as the city business man. He expressed the hope that this section never will see the time when extremes of poverty and wealth exist.

For Paducah, interurban railways would be the greatest single factor in its growth but railroads and interurban railways would come only when we have the traffic to support them, and that traffic can be secured by increasing our population by immigration, by diversifying farm products and paying careful attention to our markets.

He said Louisville was jealous of Paducah from its ideal location to become the metropolis of this section. As a means of securing the conditions which he proved immigration would bring, he urged the organization of a permanent immigration bureau.

The Organization.

Following is the report of the committee on organization:

Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the convention:

Your committee appointed to submit a plan of organization for the approval of the convention, beg leave to submit the following:

1. That we organize an immigration association with headquarters at Paducah, to be known as The Western Kentucky and Southern Illinois Immigration association.

2. That the objects of the association shall be the sending abroad representatives, one or more, as may be deemed necessary, in the north-west, and other quarters where deemed necessary, suitable advertising matter, advertising the section of country working with this association, and working up colonies of immigrants, and inducing them to make their homes in locations embraced by this association, and to carry on this work in the northwest of our own country, in the great labor centers or elsewhere, as may be deemed wise and proper for getting the best results.

3. That the territory embraced by the organization cover what is known as Jackson's Purchase in Kentucky, Lyon county and Livingston county, Cairo and Metropolis, and their respective counties, Hop-

How the Blood Flow Affects Health.

Few people appreciate the necessity of keeping the blood in every way in good condition if they would have good health.

There are two factors in disease, which, by an endless variety of changes and combinations define every departure from normal conditions.

These are the BLOOD and the NERVES. They sustain life, and END IT.

The blood must maintain a steady, swift and equal flow, or bad consequences follow. Every organ and tissue must get its right share of blood, no more, no less. Stop it and the system is soon poisoned with accumulated body sewage, and lack of proper nourishment sets up, headaches, tired, worn out sensations, no life, no energy and other kindred ailments follow.

Right the blood flow, and they all leave.

This is the Osteopathic theory. It merely goes back to the beginning of disease. It finds most disease is associated with an abnormal blood flow.

Especially during the fall and winter months it is necessary to keep the blood flow right. Exercise of the right sort is a good stimulant for circulation, but the dry hot air treatment, followed by the Osteopathic treatments, which I am giving with such marked good results, is the best treatment yet discovered.

Why? Simply because they go to the basis.

Come to see me at any time and I can easily satisfy you that I can soon build up the run-down system, while you are attending to your usual duties. I shall, too, be pleased to refer you to people you know well who are enthusiastic in their praises of the treatments.

My office hours are from 8 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m.

BRILLIANT CROWD AT HORSE SHOW

Boxes Were Resplendent With Magnificent Costumes.

Music and Lights and Colors Form Enchanting Setting for the Exhibition.

HARD TO SELECT THE WINNERS

Auspicious, indeed, was the opening of the horse show last night at Wallace park.

The weather was fine, the audience a thoroughly representative, and a good sized one—about 2,000—and the events brought out such splendid specimens of horse flesh as only Kentucky, famed for her fine horses, could produce.

The crowd commenced to come about 7 o'clock, taking the facilities of the street cars to accommodate them, and by 8 o'clock the grand stand, the boxes and the bleachers were comfortably filled.

The show started at 8 o'clock with the grand parade of all the entries for the night, and the program went through on schedule time.

The first event, the best single carriage horse, brought out five entries, Saunders A. Fowler, R. W. Tully, C. L. Van Meter, James A. Glauber, of Paducah, and E. H. Haley, of Murray, and the first prize was awarded to Mr. Haley, the second prize to Mr. Tully, and the third to Mr. Glauber. The prizes were $15, $10 and $5.

The second event, the best combined horse, mare or gelding, to be shown under saddle and driven in harness, brought out a fine field of entries, Mr. Lang's Rebellion, Mr. Burke's of Cairo, Bessie; James P. Campbell, Jr.'s Pansy; Powell and Parker's Kentucky Chieftain; Mr. Billings High Wave; Mr. Van Meter's Gypsy; Mr. Burke's Nellie Papst; Mr. Kolb's Lady Rose; Mr. Haley's Martin; Mr. Boswell's of Mayfield, Nora Dare, and Key and Tyree's, of Mayfield, Star, Cromwell. Mr. Boswell's entry won the first premium, Key and Tyree the second and Powell and Parker the third.

The third event, for the best lady rider, the prize for which was a silver cup, was won by Mrs. George Flornoy. The other entries were Miss Fannie Carter and Miss Nicholson.

The fourth event, for the best gentleman rider, brought out, too, a big number of entries, and some fine exhibitions of riding were given. The entries were: Zack Bryant, William Mason, S. P. Johnson, Cecil Dickerson, Ben Frank, W. I. Sturdivant, E. A. Fitzgerald, James Lang, Dick Williams, Will Rudy, E. A. Burk, Dr. Bass, James Utterback, Cade Davis and Joseph Fleisher.

The prize was captured by former Mayor James M. Lang. The crowd picked him as a winner on the first lap around the ring, and he was loudly cheered when he carried off the cup, the prize.

The fourth event was for the best match pair of horses for two-seated rig, vehicle 25 per cent, general appointments 15 per cent. The entries were Hume-Ogilvie accompanied by Miss Lucy Moore; Wynne Tully alone; Owen Tully alone; E. A. Haley with Mrs. James Sleeth and Mr. Gus Thompson, accompanied by Miss Martha Davis and Mr. and Mrs. James Utterback. Mr. Haley won first prize of $25; Wynne Tully second prize of $15, and Gus Thompson third prize of $10.

The sixth event, the best five gaited horse, mare or gelding owned in west Kentucky, southern Illinois or west Tennessee brought out the following entries: Mr. Lang's Rebellion, Mr. Van Meter's Gypsy; Mr. Wilcox's Fanchon; Mr. Burke's of Cairo, Bessie; Mr. Fitzgerald's Nellie Papst; Mr. Atkin's Mattie Fowler; Mr. Kolb's Lady Rose; Mr. Haley's Gold Dust; Mr. Billings' High Wave; Cade Steward's Rex; Mr. Boswell's, of Mayfield, High Art, and Key and Tyree's of Mayfield, entry. The crowd picked Mr. Atkin's Mattie Fowler for winner of the event, but Key and Tyree carried off the first premium, and Mattie Fowler, with Mr. Armstrong riding, the second. Mr. Hays of Mayfield, won the third.

The Belvedere cup for the best lady driver was one of the features of the evening, and brought out some splendid drivers, Mrs. George Flournoy, driving Mr. Haley's handsome span which had won the first in the matched pair event; Mrs. Charles Graham, driving one of Mr. Gus Thompson's horses; Mrs. Luther Graham, Miss Nicholson, Miss Hallene Yancey and Mrs. John Blecker. An exciting incident of the event was a little stunt not down on the program, Miss Nicholson's horse took fright at the crowd and the music and got beyond the young lady's control and raced around the ring several times. Miss Nicholson showed her horsemanship, however, and handled it splendidly, getting the horse under control just about the time some of the spectators started to her assistance. It was hard for the audience to pick the winner of this event, but the judges gave the prize to Mrs. Charles Graham.

Tonight's Program.

The program for tonight is the best one in the entire series, and if the weather is favorable, an old story now, the best crowd of the show will be in attendance.

The children's events will come off tonight, and the preparations for them have been elaborate. Last year these events were the best of the show from the standpoint of interest elicited. The little fellows and the little misses are as much excited over the events as any of the older heads could be over the other events, and many a little prayer for a fair night has been sent into the weather man, who it is claimed controls the elements. From observation, however, it seems no human controls them.

The weather, unless it is raining in torrents, won't interfere with the show, as the grounds drain rapidly and the grand stand is dry and well protected. The approaches from the entrance gate are also in good condition.

Notes.

It was a dress and beauty show, as well as horse show, but the horse was first in point of interest. It would be hard to find a prettier sight than that grand stand and the two rows of boxes fringing it last night. The forty-four boxes were filled with handsomely dressed men and women competing, as it seemed, with the fine display of thoroughbreds in the ring.

Mr. Scott Isbell, one of the judges said last night that he had been judging at horse shows and country fairs for the past six years and that the Paducah show was the equal of any of them.

The association is already planning for a larger and better show next year.

Many of the immigration delegates were in attendance last night. Capt. W. J. Stone, of Lyon county, who is chairman of the convention, occupied a box with Capt. Ed Farley and Mr. Will Hummel.

The handling of the crowds is fine. Competent ushers sent the audience without any confusion or delays.

The audience is generous in its applause of horses and drivers and riders, and shows its judgment in its accord with that of the judges in most of the events.

The show is over by 10:30 o'clock each night.

This afternoon the following additional entries were made:

Rebel Dare, James M. Lang, gray stallion, age 5, ring 5.

Kitty Bosom, A. P. Fitzgerald, black mare, age 3, ring 6.

U. D. C.

The tenth annual convention of the Kentucky division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy which is in session at Pewee Valley is a most successful occasion.

The convention was called to order for the first session in the Pewee Valley Presbyterian church by Mrs. Roy McKinney, of Paducah, state president. Before the close of the afternoon session more than one hundred delegates had reported.

Many guests attending from various parts of the state brought the attendance up nearly to 200 persons. The beautiful grounds of the Confederate Home had been decorated for the occasion with red and white bunting and small Confederate flags.

During the morning session Colonel Bennett H. Young announced to the delegates that Mrs. L. Z. Duke, of New York, had made a donation of $2,200 for the building of an assembly hall at the home, to be located immediately east of the infirmary. The announcement was received with great enthusiasm, and the delegates testified their appreciation of Mrs. Duke's generosity by a resolution, which the secretary was directed to forward to Mrs. Duke.

One of the features of the session was a lively discussion of the question of levying a one cent per capita tax to provide prizes for essays by children under 16 years of age on the causes leading up to the war between the states. The motion was carried amid much excitement. Afterwards the Cross of Honor and the Forrest badges were conferred on a number of veterans in the Confederate home. Thursday afternoon at the lawn fete in the Confederate Home grounds, Mrs. Roy McKinney, of Paducah, and Gen. A. H. Tyler, of Hickman, had this in charge.

A delightful evening reception was given the delegates at the Confederate Home, where the state officers are being entertained. Palms, flowers and flags were the decorations and frappe was served in loving cups with appropriate souvenirs for each guest.

Ball This Evening.

The horse show ball will take place this evening at the Elks' Home and will be an especially handsome affair. The grand march will start at 10:30, there will be three dance figures after this and then a three favor cotillion will be danced. The favors are all appropriate to the horse show and will be attractive souvenirs of the event. Mrs. George C. Wallace and Miss Anna Webb will have the favor table in charge. The cotillion will be led by Mr. Roy Culley and Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips, who is the chairman of the entertainment committee. Three dances will also follow the cotillions.

The grand march will be led by R. B. Phillips and Mrs. Thomas Leach.

At the tea table Mrs. Campbell Flournoy will preside, and Mrs. Thomas Leach at the punch bowl.

Those assisting in receiving are: Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Leach, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rudy, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Police Captain Frank Harlan has returned from Chicago, where he had been visiting his daughter, and Detective Will Baker, who has been acting in his place, is in harness again.

Miss Mary Dillin, who has been the charming guest of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Faust, at Cochran apartments, returned to her home in Nashville, Tenn., today.

Mr. B. J. Feeney, traveling engineer of the Illinois Central railroad, returned today from a trip over the Louisville & Tennessee Central districts of the system.

Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Murrell and Mr. and Mrs. Roy McKinney, of Paducah, have been spending this week in Louisville attending the horse show. Mrs. Murrell and Mrs. McKinney are also attending the state convention of the U. D. C., at Pewee Valley, this week.—Louisville Evening Post.

Striking Case of Heredity.

George Bernard Shaw, the playwright, has a good deal of contempt for scientists. "We hold scientists in too high honor," he wrote recently to an American admirer. "We take them too much on faith. We believe every scientific assertion, no matter how incredible it may be. And how incredible, how preposterous, much of this scientific talk is! There's heredity, for instance. I have seen books or heredity that were about as logical as the remark of an old woman whose daughter played the piano."

"Your daughter plays well," a woman said to her.

"Yes," the old woman replied, "she does have a fine touch and it's no wonder, for she loves the piano and never tires of it. You see she's a great taste for music; but then, that's only natural, for her grandfather had a skill fractured with a cornet at a picnic."—New York Tribune.

Apples on a Grapevine.

In the yard of the home of William J. Fink at Bethlehem there is a freak growth that has aroused the wonder of all who have seen it. A low, slender branch of a grapevine has put forth two clusters of three each of a fruit resembling an apple.

The presence of a large apple tree a few rods away has led some to believe that the growth on the grapevine is a product of a mingling of apple and grape pollen.

Others who have seen the freak apples regard them as the result of the stinging of the vine by some insect.

The apples are now about as large as small crab apples. They lack a well defined stem, growing close to the vine.—Philadelphia Record.

DID U KNOW?

That the heat units in a HEATING STOVE is what counts in heating cold air? A stove may put forth its best efforts to serve, but lacking in heat units, can only heat a little space around it.

HART'S HEATERS

Are made with heat units everywhere. The larger stoves have very powerful circulation features also, making it easy for HART'S STOVES to do the work, which is the reason they use so LITTLE FUEL and LAST so LONG.

PLATT COLLAPSES IN HOTEL LOBBY

His Son Takes Charge of Him and Guides Him.

Militant Mrs. Platt Leaps From Buggy and Assaults the Man With a Camera.

THE BORGIA DANCE EPISODE

New York, Oct. 5.—While United States Senator Thomas Collier Platt was being removed in a state of collapse yesterday from his luxurious apartments in the Hotel Gotham to temporary quarters which had been fitted up for him in the offices of the United States Express company in Lower Broadway, his athletic young wife was engaged in the pastime of punching a photographer in the nose for daring to try to snap her at her country home. The photographer escaped with a confused face, but his plate was smashed and his picture a failure.

The move of the senator was due to the fact that he had been informed that his wife was coming to town, and he wished to avoid her. It was unnecessary, however, for Mrs. Platt did not leave the country home.

Frank Platt and a porter bore Senator Platt across the lobby, an inch at a time today, steering his helpless form toward the street door. He suddenly gave way, however, and fell in their arms, his limp in his OFFICERS CHOSEN.

bones. His legs dangled lifelessly, with the toes scraping against the floor, and the upper part of his body was seized with a violent spasm of trembling. His drawn face turned deathly white.

From appearances he was a very ill man.

Charged Photographer.

Mrs. Platt drove into Highland Mills with her daughter, Mrs. Francis J. Carmody. The women made the trip in a low runabout, drawn by a team of spanking blacks. The coachman, protegee, Hedges, whose name figures so prominently in the story of the Platt war, guided the team.

Behind a telephone post near Cromwell's yard a man was hiding with a camera. As he focused his lens on the approaching runabout Mrs. Platt saw him.

Without waiting for the horses to check their speed she gathered her skirts tight about her, leaped into the road and charged the photographer. Before he could make a movement to save himself she had knocked his picture machine flying with a blow of her gloved hand. As the man stooped to gather up the box she struck him twice in the face.

The Borgia Dance.
One of the chief charges that will be brought against Mrs. Platt, in case a suit for divorce is begun by the senator, it is asserted, will have to do with the famous trip that it is alleged Mrs. Platt and her women friends made to San Francisco's Chinatown. The story runs that at one of the places visited was given a certain dance called, for want of a better name, and because of its historical prototype, "the Borgia dance."

Business was booming; the rivers were rising rapidly and everybody in a good humor along the wharves today. The gauge showed a mark of 18.1 at 8 o'clock this morning, a rise of 1.4 in 24 hours. Wind south to southeast; cloudy and sultry.

A full force were busy at the Paducah Marine Railway company's yards today making up for lost time caused by the rains. The repairs to the big towboat Harvester and the little Mississippi river steamer Speed are nearing completion. The Speed will go back in the water about Tuesday and the Harvester will follow her a day later. The big transfer steamer DeKoven of the Illinois Central railroad Paducah fleet and the Woolfolk are scheduled for cradling as soon as there is room for them.

Both boats, it is reported, will be overhauled from keel to stacks.

The Buck Lindsey, a noisy little member of the "Mosquito" fleet, arrived from Florence, Ala., today and tied in at the foot of Kentucky avenue. She is on her way to the lower Mississippi to pick a trade in one of the little southern streams.

The repairs to the ferry Bette Owen's rudder were finished today and she went back into action early this afternoon, making regular trips.

The E. Douglas, pushing a good size tow of railroad wood in command of Capt. Mark Cole, arrived from the Tennessee today and passed on over to Joppa to transfer to the S. & E. railroad.

The Russell Lord, running light, is due from St. Louis today and will be stored and coaled for a big trip up the Tennessee to bring out ties for the Ayer-Lord company.

The Danbar arrived from Evansville at 10 o'clock last night and left on the return shortly after midnight.

The Henry Harley is due this evening or tonight from Evansville and will leave on the return as soon as business is completed.

The Saltito came out of the Tennessee today with a good trip and cleared for St. Louis with good business.

The Inverness left today for the Cumberland to bring out ties.

The Kentucky arrived from the Tennessee last night and will leave on another trip up that river late tomorrow evening.

The New Orleans Pleasure of Sunday says: "The seagoing tug W. M. Wood, of the fleet of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company, sank shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a short distance above Myrtle Grove plantation, 25 miles down the river, while towing the United Fruit company's steamship Preston, and now lies in about 175 or 180 feet of water at the bottom of the river, and is a total loss. Though several flatboats and other craft have been sunk by being pulled under at the bow, the Wood is the first of the large tugboats to meet this fate on the river in a number of years. The crew escaped to shore in a skiff. When off Myrtle Grove, the stern line on the Wood parted, and the strong current swung the stern out into the open, jamming the bow tight against the side of the Preston and pulling her nose into the water, capsizing the craft, but not before all of the crew of the boat had climbed aboard the Preston out of danger of being drowned."

Official Forecasts.

The Ohio at Evansville, will fall tonight and Friday. At Mt. Vernon will continue rising during the next 36 hours. At Paducah and Cairo will continue rising during the next several days.

The Tennessee at Florence will rise slowly during the next 12 hours, come to a stand, then fall. At Johnsonville will continue rising during the next three days. Will reach the "flood stage" by tonight or Saturday morning.

The Mississippi at Chester will fall tonight. From below Chester to Cairo will rise during the next 24 hours.

PALMA LONG AGO FORESAW OUTCOME

Desired to Abdicate on September Ninth.

Sent Letter Begging Intervention of United States, Admitting His Inability.

MANY DESIRE ANNEXATION.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Secretary Root made public today the correspondence leading up to the intervention in Cuba. The correspondence took place between Consul General Steinhardt at Havana and Acting Secretary Bacon, of the state department. An important feature developed in the dispatch was that intervention was asked by the Cuban government as early as September 8, and that as long ago as September 14th, President Palma had determined to resign as president of the republic, and that the vice president and cabinet ministers had also determined to no longer continue in office. It is also shown that intervention by the United States had long been planned by the Palma government and was communicated to the state department in a letter by Consul Steinhardt as early as September 5.

Desire Annexation.

Havana, Oct. 5.—Now that the disarming of the revolutionists and government volunteers is progressing steadily the thoughtful portions of the public of all nationalities are discussing the possibilities of Cuba's future form of government.

The desire for annexation, which has been carefully concealed for the past four years, is now voiced openly, and the wish that the United States would retain some measure of actual control in Cuban affairs is heard more insistently than ever.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of Miss Maud Callen, who died September 29, after a five weeks' illness of typhoid fever.

Miss Callen was 24 years old, a native of Obion, Tennessee, but had lived the greater part of her life in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Callen. She leaves one brother, Elmer, one half brother, Ed Callen, of Vicksburg, Miss., and one half sister, Mrs. Rogers, of Kennett, Mo., besides many friends.

Maud was a sweet, lovable girl. None knew her but could love her. No matter how dark and gloomy the day, there was sunshine where Maud went.

On last Saturday morning she heard the Saviour say: "They that seek me shall find me," and she sought to find her Saviour and now her spirit is with the angels.

The loving one from us has gone, A voice we loved is stilled; A place is vacant in home, That never can be filled.

The Bath Comedy

By AGNES and EGERTON CASTLE

Authors of "The Pride of Jennie"

COPYRIGHT, 1906, BY EGERTON CASTLE

His wild, bright eyes were deeply sad as he turned them on her, and he was pale as death.

She drew back quickly, frowned, hesitated, frowned again and then brightened up once more.

"Then, sir," said she, "when your legs are restored to you, pray let them conduct your heart round to my lodgings, and we shall see what can be done toward mending it."

She dropped him a courtesy and was gone.

As Stafford folded her into the chaise he whispered:

"If ever I have a chance of running away with you, Kitty, I'll take very good care not to let you know which road I mean to choose."

CHAPTER XXV.

As the carriage rolled homeward on the Bath road Lady Standish, both hands folded over the mysterious letter, sat staring out of the window with unseeing eyes. The dawn had begun to break upon a cloudless sky; the air was chill and brisk; mists wreathed white scarves over the fields. She felt conscious in every fiber of her being that Sir Jasper was eagerly contemplating her in the cold gray light. Heart and brain were in a turmoil; the anguish, the violent emotions, the successive scenes of the last forty-eight hours passed again before her mind like a phantasmagoria. Partly because of Mistress Bellairs' advice and partly because of a certain womanly resentment which, gentle as she was, still reared itself within her, she did not even cast a look upon her husband, but sat musingly gazing at the land. Presently she became aware that he had slid an arm behind her waist. She trembled a little, but did not turn to him.

"Julia," said he in a muffled, uncertain tone, "Julia, I—I have done you injustice."

Then, for jealousy is as ill to extinguish as a fire that smolders, a flame of the evil passion leaped up again within him. "But you must admit," said he, "that I had cause. Your own words, I may say your own confession—"

Lady Standish turned her head, lifted heavy lids and for a moment fixed upon him the most beautiful eyes in the world. "Nay," said she; "I made no confession." Her tongue trembled upon other protestations, yet Kitty's warning carried the day.

"Tell me," said he, and bent to her, "tell me, was it Lord Verney, after all?"

Lady Standish again raised her eyes to his face, and, could such a thing have been possible in a creature whose very being was all tenderness, he would have sworn that in her gaze there was contempt.

"Sir Jasper," said she, "it never was Lord Verney." And then she added, "Has there not been enough of this?"

As she spoke she moved her hands and involuntarily looked down at the letter she held. The letter was in Sir Jasper's writing and addressed to Mistress Bellairs.

"What have you there?" cried he.

"Nay," said she; "I know not, for this is not my letter, but you will know." And she held it up to him, and her hand did not tremble, yet was a cold fear upon her. "You wrote it," she said. He stared, and his countenance changed. Utter discomposure fell upon him.

"Julia," cried he, "Julia, upon my honor, I swear 'twas nothing, less than nothing, a mere idle bit of gallantry, a jest!" As he spoke he fell upon one knee in the chaise at her feet.

"Then I may read it?" said she.

"Ah, Julia," cried he, and encircled her with his arms. She felt the straining eagerness of his grasp, she felt his heart beat stormily. With a sudden warmth she knew that after all his love was here.

Then she had an inspiration worthy of a clever woman, but love has his own guises. She disengaged herself from his embrace and put the letter into his hand.

"Take it," said she.

"Julia," he cried, and shook from head to foot, and the tears sprang to his eyes. "I never gave her a serious thought. I vow I hate the woman."

"Then tear it up," said Lady Standish, with a superhuman magnanimity that almost turned her faint.

He rose and tore the letter into shreds quickly, lest she should repent, and flung them out of the window. She watched the floating pieces flutter and vanish. In her secret soul she said to herself:

"Mistress Bellairs and I shall be very good friends at a distance!"

Her husband was kneeling at her feet again.

"Angel," cried he pleadingly, and once more she was in his arms, and yet his jealous heart kept growling within him, like a surly dog that will not be silenced.

"Julia," said he in her ear, "but one word, one word, my love! Julia, is there any word, anything between us?"

"Oh, that," she said and smiled archly, "that, sir, you must discover for yourself."

Her head sank on his shoulder as she spoke.

"You torture me!" he murmured. But she knew that he had never kissed her with such passion in all his life.

Before.

As her chaise followed on the road, some hundred yards or so behind Sir Jasper's, Mistress Bellairs, sitting beside Lady Maria (who sported the whole way with rhythmic steadiness), gazed across the livid fields toward the low horizon, where the slow fires of dawn were pulsing into brightness. She was in deeply reflective mood.

In her excited, busy brain she revolved many important questions and weighed the gains and losses in her game of "love and hazard" with all the seriousness of the gambler homeward bound after a heavy night.

"At least," she thought, "I did a vastly good turn to my Lady Standish. But the woman is a fool, if a sweet one, and fools are past permanent mending. I did well," thought she, "to condemn the calf—there is no doubt of that. But my poor O'Hara! How could I ever have called him a cucumber? There was love for the taking, now—yet not! Worshiper, vastly well; but husband? Not for me, not for me! Bless me," she cried to herself feebly, "is a woman to have no choice between midwinter, green spring, or the dog days? If I ever allow myself to be abducted again I will be with your man of the world—one with palate enough to relish me without wanting to swallow me at a gulp."

She paused in her train of thought to laugh at the recollection of Mr. Stafford's parting speech. "There is an easy heart for you!" she murmured. "A gallant gentleman with as pretty a wit as O'Hara himself, and every whit as good a leg. Perhaps," thought Mistress Kitty, yawned and grew sleepy, nodded her delicate head, dreamed then a little dream and saw a silver beam in the moonlight, and woke up with a smile. The spirit of Bath cathedral pierced silver gray through a golden mist. Far beneath her gaze, as the chaise began to tip the crest of the great hill, like a silver ribbon ran the river. "Perhaps," she said, "we shall see."

THE END.

Trolley Development of Suburbs.

"It is in the development of suburban territory adjacent to the great cities that the results of trolley pioneering are most apparent. A suburb is not sufficient unto itself. There must be not only good commutation facilities to the city, but ready access to the railroad and ready communication between different houses and different suburbs. The old-time suburb meant a sort of social isolation with which the trolley has completely done away.

"Boston, Chicago, Indianapolis, Philadelphia and Washington are all marked examples of trolley development; but nowhere are the results more evident and characteristic than in the outlying portions of the greater city of New York and the adjacent tributary territory. But the most remarkable results of trolley pioneering unparalleled even in Massachusetts, or state famous for its trolley lines, have been obtained in New Jersey, particularly in the northern part of the state. The five counties in which trolley development has been principally carried on—Bergen, Essex, Passaic, Hudson and Union—have increased in population from 50 to 100 per cent. of the total population of the state.

"There are now more than 650 miles of trolley lines in North Jersey, and about 200,000 persons who are New Yorkers, as far as business interests and associations are concerned have their homes in New Jersey. From the city of Newark as a center, itself within the circle which bounds the greater city of New York on the north and east, the trolley lines radiate in all directions like the spokes of a wheel, linking together the smaller cities and towns and connecting them with the railroads, until in many directions the country is settled so solidly along the trolley lines that one is unable to tell where one town ends and another begins. When the present rate of growth in population is considered, it is not an impossible dream of the future that the entire northern part of the state, nearly all of which is well within a reasonable commuting distance of New York, will become an unbroken suburban residence section tributary to the metropolis, with its present cities and towns forming the local market centers."—Franklin Wood, in Moody's Magazine for September.

MEDICAL MEN IN A CONTROVERSY

Different Opinions on Cooper's Great Success.

Statements by St. Louis Physicians—Some Give Him Credit—Others Call Him a Fad.

SAY CITY HAS COOPER-MANIA.

St. Louis, Oct. 4.—The astonishing sale of Cooper's preparations in this city has now reached such immense figures that the medical fraternity at large have become forced into open discussion of the man and his preparations.

The physicians as a whole seem to be divided with regard to the young man's success in St. Louis—some being willing to credit him for what he has accomplished, while others assert that the interest he has aroused is but a passing fad which cannot last, and which will die out as quickly as it has sprung up.

The opinion of these two factions is very well voiced in the statements made recently by two of a number of physicians who were interviewed on the subject.

Dr. J. E. Carass, when questioned about the matter, said: "I have not been a believer in proprietary preparations heretofore, nor can I say that I believe in them at present. But I must admit that some of the facts recently brought to my notice concerning this man Cooper have gone far towards removing the prejudice I had formed against him when the unheard of demand for the preparations first sprang up in this city."

"Numbers of my patients whom I have treated for chronic liver, kidney and stomach troubles have met me after taking Cooper's remedies, and have stated positively that he has accomplished wonderful results for them. I notice particularly in cases of stomach trouble that the man has relieved several cases that were of years' standing and proved very obstinate in treatment."

"I am the last man on earth to stand in the way of anything that may prove for the public good simply through professional prejudice and I am inclined to give Cooper and his preparations credit as deserving to some extent the popular demonstration that has been accorded them in this city."

Another well known physician, who was seen, took the opposite view of the "Cooper-mania," as he called it, which now has this city in its grip. He said: "I can only liken the present state of affairs to a certain kind of hallucination. For want of a better name I might call it 'Cooper-Mania.' The people of St. Louis seem to be firm in the belief that this man Cooper has health corked up in a bottle."

"Some of them imagine that he has completely cured them of various ills judging from their statements. It is beyond me to say why the city has gone crazy over the man. It may be safely put down, I think, to one of the passing fads that so often attack the American public."

"Sooner or later the people are bound to regain their senses, and will then realize that a reputable physician is the one to whom their health had best be entrusted."

In the meantime Cooper meets several thousand people daily, and only smiles when statements of the above character are quoted to him. His charitable work still continues to be very extensive.

A Squandered Life.

Halsey Corwin, the Brooklyn young man who recently was disintegrated from obscurity by the theft of $50,000 worth of diamonds owned by his wife, has had a career like a rocket. His father was one of the prominent men of Brooklyn, and when he died three years ago he left the youngster more than $1,000,000 in cash. He became known as the "Angel of Coney Island." No one went thrifty who knew him. He married the young woman who now bears his name after a betrothal dinner at which $15,000 worth of wine was opened. He heaped rare jewels upon her and squandered his father's fortune as though it had no end. His wife no longer recognizes his existence. He is working for $25 a month as a ticket-taker in the very resort where he once spent money by the thousands.

Force of Habit.

Richly (seeing his son returning from school crying)—What's the matter, my boy?

Son—The teacher struck me, papa.

NEW INSTRUCTOR TAKES UP WORK

High School Department Has Complete Faculty.

Athletics Still Occupy Attention of Boys—Ishkoodah, Editors—Class Election.

SEVERAL TEACHERS ARE ILL.

Prof. C. H. Shrieves, of Boston, the Harvard graduate who accepted the position of master of science in the Paducah High school, arrived last night and this morning assumed his duties. He is well recommended. He intends to make his department one of the strongest in the school, and will increase the facilities of the already well equipped laboratory.

Football Team Ready.

The High school football team is ready for the game with Metropolis tomorrow, the first of the season. The new suits have not arrived but old ones will be used. The trip will be made in Supt. C. M. Lieb's gasoline launch, and several of the faculty will go down. Prof. Lieb will act as engineer, and Principal Payne as pilot. The boat will leave the wharf at 11 o'clock.

The following is the line-up of the football team: St. John, captain and left half back; Fisher, right half back; Virgin, center rush; Cave, right guard; Elliott, right tackle; Cope, right end; Burton, left guard; Reeder, left tackle; Bagby, left end; Halley, quarter back; Davis, full back. The subs are Randie and Harth. Roscoe Reed is the coach.

The Ishkoodah.

Yesterday the class editors of the monthly school journal, "The Ishkoodah," were elected as follows: Miss Vera Johnston, senior class editor; Miss Sadie Smith, junior class editor; Mr. William Wilhelm, sophomore, and Miss Elizabeth Weemer, freshman.

The managing and sporting editors are yet to be selected. The pupils intend to make the Ishkoodah more attractive this season, and are mapping out plans for the first edition, which will be out this month some time.

Freshman Election.

Yesterday afternoon after school was dismissed an election was held by the freshman class and Miss Mary Wheeler, daughter of Hon. Charles K. Wheeler, was elected president. Elections in other classes will be held next week.

Musical Arrangements Incomplete.

Little has been done in the musical line except the organization of the orchestra, and until Mr. Clark Bonduant returns from Milwaukee next week, the orchestra will not play. He is the first violin. A big musical entertainment will be arranged.

Washington Building Suffers.

Because of the illness of three teachers in the Washington building, substitutes had to be secured. Miss Lora Brandon, Miss Mary Owen Murrah and Prof. J. E. Coleman are ill. The substitutes are Miss Floyd Swift, Miss Catherine Powell and Miss Claire St. John.

A Heavy Load to Carry.

Along with dyspepsia comes nervousness and general ill-health. Why? Because a disordered stomach does not permit the food to be properly digested, and its products assimilated by the system. The blood is charged with poisons which come from this disordered digestion, and in turn the nerves are not fed on good, red blood, and we see symptoms of nervousness, sleeplessness and general breakdown. It is not head work, nor over physical exertion that does it, but poor stomach work. With poor, thin blood the body is not protected against the attack of germs of grip, bronchitis and consumption. Fortify the body at once with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—a rare combination of native medicinal roots without a particle of alcohol or dangerous habit-forming drugs.

A little book of extracts, from prominent medical authorities extolling every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will be mailed free to any address on request by postal card or letter. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Many years of active practice convinced Dr. Pierce of the value of many native roots as medicinal agents and he went to great expense, both in time and money, to perfect his own peculiar processes for rendering them both efficient and safe for tonic, alterative and rebuilding agents.

The enormous popularity of "Golden Medical Discovery" is due both to its scientific compounding and to the actual medicinal value of its ingredients. The publication of the names of the ingredients on the wrapper of every bottle sold, gives full assurance of its non-alcoholic character and removes all objection to the use of an unknown or secret remedy. It is not a patent medicine nor a secret one either. This fact puts it in a class all by itself, bearing as it does upon every bottle wrapper the Badge of Honesty, in the full list of its ingredients.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" cures, weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver and biliousness, ulceration of stomach and bowels and all catarrhal affections no matter what parts or organs may be affected with it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original little liver pills, first put up 40 years ago. They regulate and invigorate, stomach, liver and bowels. Much maligned but never equaled. A Festival of the Best Offerings in Overcoats for Every One

$10.00 to $40.00

We have had very little overcoat weather yet, but the blasts of winter are not very far away.

We have had a host of callers this week, though, looking to see what the sea on and the New Store offers in overcoats—and every man found just what he wanted. That's the Culley policy—what you want at the price you want to pay.

We are showing ALL the popular styles in overcoats—the form-fitting, knee length, Louis XV, in grays and neat effects; the more conservative coat of similar style, the ever popular loose fitting, straight out top coat in grays, tans, black and striped effects, and the Chesterfield coats, which will always be popular and proper. These coats come in all the fabrics man can want, or fashion dictate, and the range in price, and styles is so great we can satisfy any man's taste.

Then, too, we have the raincoats, the most popular garment the manufacturers have conceived. These coats embody all the style of our best coats, and possess the virtue of retaining them.

We are holding a festival of overcoats and raincoats this week and should like to show them to you. Come in, you won't be urged to buy.

The Musical Drill is one of the big features of the Horse Show. Twenty well trained couples, going through a series of difficult evolutions in a brilliantly lighted ring, will arouse the enthusiasm of the audience to white heat.

4. Best Pair Roadsters shown to runabout. Equipment considered. Driver to be accompanied by lady. $25, $15, $10.

There is nothing in the horse world more beautiful than a handsome pair of blooded horses shown to a light runabout. The nine entries in this ring could not be surpassed in the state of Kentucky and the judges will have a hard time naming the winner.

5. Registered Five-Gaited Saddle Stallion. $25, $15, $10.

When the association arranged this ring they did not expect more than three entries, but horsemen have thought so well of the Paducah Horse Show and have brought so many "good ones" that it will be one of the best filled rings of the entire program.

6. Pacing Roadster to runabout. $15, $10, $5.

There are a great many pacing horses in this section and the pacing ring will be one of the largest and most hotly contested of the entire meet.

7. Champion Light Harness Horse, mare or gelding, owned in Western Kentucky, Southern Illinois or Western Tennessee. Horse must have been owned by exhibitor thirty days before this event. No exhibitor to enter more than one horse. Horse 75 per cent, equipment 25 per cent. $60, $25, $15. The champion to receive the Palmer house cup, valued at $150.

There will be no less than fifteen entries for championship and the money value of all the horses shown in this ring will run well up towards $10,000. It will be a display of horse flesh that will thrill the blood of every Kentuckian, and "every Kentuckian" that can possibly arrange should be there.
